TENNESSEE AND ALABAMA RAIL ROAD .- This road has been completed, for some time past, as far as Thomp-on's Station, a distance of about thirty miles. The cars are at present running daily between this place and the above station. This is a first class road, and is one of the best in the whole South. Its completion is being rapidly pushed forward. We are informed that there are at this time three hundred hands steadily engaged at work, and it is confidently believed that ten miles more will be finished by the 1st of April next, which will bring the cars within four miles of Co-

We trust every reader of the Parator will respond generously to the eloquent and stiring "appeal" in behalf of the purchase of Mount Vernon, from the pen of Mrs. Fond, which will be found in our columns this morning. Our Wholesale Houses. We make brief mention to-day of another brace the list as we find it convenient.

Messrs. ALLISON, ANDERSON & Co., west side of the Public Square, are among the most enterprising of our wholesale dry goods merchants Commeneing business here a few years ago and at once sprang into a successful trade, which has been extending further and wider with every successive season. They are now abundantly supplied, with every kind and quality of goods, to meet the demands of their regular customers, and of all others who may wish to make a bill with them. We do not deem it necessary to go into details. Every merchant knows what is required to make up a first rate stock, and it is for their information we write. But we may mention that no inconsiderable portion of their outlay has been expended in | ceuce and interest all its predecessors. ready-made clothing, their assortment of which will be found very desirable.

their magnificent new store on the corner of Mar- KKR. ket street and the Square. In our issue of June 15th we described this building, and need not repeat it here. We will remark, however, that it has been finished in beautiful style, wanting only the front cornice and pediment to make it complete. It is altogether a house which does bonor to the builders and to the city. Within it are goods of all kinds-a mammoth wholesale stock of dry goods, including ready-made clothing, boots, shoes, hats, varieties, etc. This firm have long been en- pal, No. 24, South Vine street. jy 28-2m. gaged in the trade, and have been steadily advancing towards the highest pinnacle of fortune, as they have deserved. Colt Show.

Messrs. Wm. and Jas. C. Owen propose to award a silver cup, worth twenty dollars to the best colt sired by their horse, MOUNTAIN SLASHER, to be exhibited at Owen's Station, Williamson county, on the Tennessee and Alabama Railroad, on Friday next, Sept. 4th. Every person who owns a colt by this horse ought to have it present.

The Tennessee Historical Society will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Library room of Man as a candidate for Mayor of the city at the ensuing of the State Capitol,

"BACK AGEN."-Sam. Riddleberger, who has been rusticating in the shades of the country, has returned to the city, and re-opened his well-known eatinghouse, in the basement of Cooper's Buildings, corner of Cherry and Deaderick streets. His establishment has become one of the necessities of "the town," and the "fat boy" has been sadly missed by those who fed at his board.

More Brers .- Mr. Moses Kirkpatrick, of the firm of Kirkpatrick, Nevins & Co., left with us yesterday a couple of heets grown on his ground, near this city. They are about twenty three inches in GROCERS length, and together, weigh near twelve pounds, Such specimens of the vegetable kingdom, speak loudly in praise of the kind Providence which has blessed the land with peuce and plenty.

JUDGE TANKY .- The venerable Chief Justice Taney, who some six weeks ago went to the Fauquier White Sulphur Springs at Warrenton, Va., in debi itated condition, is said to be now in the enjoyment of excellent bealth and spirits, and lookng better than he has for the last fifteen years, To see him walking briskly over the S, rings' lawn, rays the Warrenton Whig, one would never suppose that the erect old man had reached his 80th year .- Baltimore Sun.

THE ISLAND OF MADEIRA. - We fearn from a letter in the Boston Traveler that this year there is not a grape on the Island, and all hopes of overcoming the blight ore given up. No one comprehends the disease and no remedy can be found. The grapes, when two months old collect a mould on the shady side, as large as pin's head, which bursts and shoots out the seed-in a few days they are dead. Mr. March has introduced the Catawaba, which he thinks will flourish, and produce in a few years as touch wine as the Island has ever

The American Horses in England, The American mate Prioress has again ron in England, and again been beaten, notwithstanding that on the last occasion she was ridden by Charlton one of the best of England's jockeys. She ran in the Lewes races, for the Sussex country cup, two miles, on the 11th August, five days after her defeat for the Goodwood cup. The result of this rice confirms the statement of Gilpatrick as to the bad condition of the mare when he rode her, and experates him fon the charge of want of judgment in the race. If the Goodwood race was lost from want of condition, five days was not enough to make her right for the Sussex, no matter who rode her. We have not received a full account of the last race, the time made, nor how many started, and until we do, connot form an opinion of the aff.ir. We, however, give the placing of the four
